If you have a PayPal account, please log in before you start the following process. If you don't have a PayPal account, it will be easy to register one and you can pay the registration fee by credit cards, or your checking account, much like how you pay your bills electronically.

On the home page of PayPal, select "Send", then fill out the "sent To" recipient with "cie-paypal@cieusa-gnyc.org" and the amount you will pay. Keep the default currency. It is usually set to "USD. Click "Continue" to the next step.
